

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

The Three Rivers Mission Community

We are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. This privacy notice explains why we collect and process personal information about people who are part of our Mission Community and how we keep it secure.

We will keep this privacy notice under review and may take the opportunity to enhance it from time to time, but if we make any significant changes that we think you would be interested in, we will endeavour to advise you accordingly.

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data.

Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession.

The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Act 2018 Regulations (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The Mission Community Council is the overarching body responsible for Data Governance, and together with the Team Rector, is the Data Controller for your data.

The Team Administrator is its Data Compliance Officer (contact details below). There is a clearly defined policy agreed by the Council to define how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The Three Rivers Mission Community complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area (Brampton Deanery area);
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the Three Rivers Mission Community;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services within the Three Rivers Mission Community, and the Diocese of Carlisle;
- To share your contact details with the Diocesan office so they can keep you informed about news in the diocese and events, activities and services that will be occurring in the diocese and in which you may be interested and need to pass on as a member of the PCC or a committee.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and process your gift aid donations and keep you informed about diocesan events.

- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the parish e.g the Diocese with your consent, or if there is a legitimate interest.

6. How long do we keep your personal data¹?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide “Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records” which is available from the Church of England website [see footnote for link].

Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and parish registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the Three Rivers Mission Community holds about you;
- The right to request that the Three Rivers Mission Community corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Three Rivers Mission Community to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable) [Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means].
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request that a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable) [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics]
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

¹ Details about retention periods can be found in the Record Management Guides located on the Church of England website at: - <https://www.churchofengland.org/about/libraries-and-archives/records-and-information-management>

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

9. Contact Details

Any questions regarding this privacy notice and our privacy practices and to exercise all relevant rights, queries or complaints please in the first instance contact the Three Rivers Mission Community Administrator e.mail: support@gemmabrownva.com
Telephone: 07884198913 or write to the Team Rector: St Martin's Vicarage, Main Street, Brampton CA8 1SH

You can contact the Information Commissioners Office on 0303 123 1113 or via their website <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us> or at the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire. SK9 5AF.